General Nathan F. Twining
Chief of Staff
United States Air Force
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear General Twining:

STAT [] has recently completed four years of duty with this Agency. During this period, he served in a variety of responsible capacities, and his consistently outstanding performance has been reflected in periodic effectiveness reports.

STAT Not only did [] perform his duties with great competence, but he also displayed most admirable personal qualities of zeal, resourcefulness and bouyant team spirit, which rendered his assignment here especially rewarding. He contributed significantly to mutual understanding and effective cooperation between this Agency, the Air Force and the other Services.

STAT I should like to take this opportunity to commend [] for his outstanding performance. I consider his tour of duty with CIA in the best tradition of public service, and would welcome his assignment to the Agency again at any time in the future.

Sincerely,

SIGNED
Allen W. Dulles
Director

General Nathan F. Twining
Chief of Staff, United States Air Force
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear General Twining:

STAT has recently returned to your service after four years of duty with this Agency. He has served us in a variety of responsible capacities, and his consistently outstanding performance has been reflected in his periodic effectiveness reports.

STAT I should like additionally to express my own particular commendation of services. Not only did he perform his duties with great competence, but he also displayed most admirable personal qualities of zeal, resourcefulness and bouyant team spirit which rendered his assignment here especially rewarding. Within his field of influence he contributed significantly to mutual understanding and effective cooperation between the Agency, the Air Force and the other armed services.

I consider his tour of duty here in the best tradition of public service and would welcome his reassignment to the Agency at some future date, if that should prove possible.

Sincerely,

(See rewrite)
